

Attention Greenway Shutterbugs

The Anne Springs Close Greenway invites amateur photographers to enter our first public Greenway Photography Contest. This contest is divided into two separate events – Earth Day and Annual. We will judge entries received through April 9, 2010 at the annual Earth Day Celebration. All photos received during the year will qualify for the annual competition. Winning photos will be on display throughout the year in the Nature Center.

The First Place winner in each adult category will receive a one-year family membership to the Anne Springs Close Greenway and Greenway gift basket. The winners in each youth category will receive a Greenway gift basket and discounts to Greenway nature and equestrian camps. Other winners will receive a Greenway gift basket.

- Deadline for the Earth Day contest is April 9, 2010.

Annual winners will be announced in February 2011.
